SUDDEN DEATH OF JONATHAN CARPENTER

Was Striken With Paralysis Saturday Afternoon and Remained in an Unconscious Condition Until Monday Morning, When He Passed Away.

WAS WELL KNOWN

In His Death North Grimsby Loses One of its Best Business Men and Farmer ---Was a Breeder of Standard Bred Horses and Pure Bred Cattle.

Jonathan Carpenter, one of North Grimsby's oldest and most highly respected citizens, passed away at his home near Winona on Monday morning, July 21, after a few hours illness, as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Carpenter was an active, healthy man almost up to the hour of his death, having been in Grimsby on business Saturday afternoon, and was in his usual health up to the moment that he was seized by paralysis.

He was stricken down about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 19 and remained in an unconscious condition until Monday morning, when he passed peacefully away.

With the removal of Jonathan Carpenter, North Grimsby loses one of its very best business men and farmers and one who was known far and wide for many years as a stock breeder of high class horses and cattle.

The deceased gentleman was born in the Township of Saltfleet on March 17, 1832 and was in his eighty-second year at the time of his death. He was a son of the late Alexander and Ann Carpenter and was baptized by the Rev. Geo. R. F. Grout, rector of St. Andrews church Grimsby, on September 1, 1832. His sponsers were Jeremiah and Mary Carpenter.

He was married over fifty years ago to Pricilla, daughter of the late Amos Chambers, who survives him.

Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter moved to the County of Norfolk, near Simcoe and engaged in farming for a few years, after which they returned to North Grimsby and settled on a farm on the stone road, three miles west of

POLICE COURT HAD BUSY WEEK

Magistrate Reeve Johnson held two or three sessions of police court this week and dealt out justice to all the cases before him.

There have been a few cases lately of young men and middle aged men who play pranks on the streets late at night and especially on Saturday night. Sometimes these men have a little liquor in them and sometimes they are just full of devilment. But whether it is liquor or devilment, Magistrate Johnson intends to put a stop to it.

Four young men (and none of them were so very young either) appeared before him this week for creating disturbances on the street late Saturday night. One of them was also accused of interfering with the constable in the discharge of his duty. This one was fined six dollars and costs, while each of the other three were fined five dollars and costs and each of them was notified that if he appeared before the magistrate again, the fine would be twenty-five dollars and they were further informed that if in the future anyone interferes with the constable in the discharge of his duty, he would not have the option of a fine but would be sent to St. Catharines jail for thirty days.

Another man was up for being intoxicated and this is not his worst crime. He brings liquor from Hamilton and distributes it to men who cannot buy it in Grimsby. This man wants to walk pretty straight or he will get into serious trouble.

Fruit growers are warned that they must pay strict attention to their pickers and not allow crates of berries to be taken to the station without inspecting them to see that all the boxes are properly filled. Some of the pickers are very cunning and only half fill the bottom boxes, placing full boxes on top of the crate. The growers in their rush, cover the crates and ship them without inspecting the under tiers of fruit. The inspectors examine the fruit at the station and fruit growers are liable to get into serious trouble through no fault of their own.

No matter whether the fruit grower is to blame or not, the magistrate has no option in the matter but to fine them if they attempt to ship crates with any of the boxes not properly filled.

NEW ELECTRIC LINE TO BUFFALO

Canadian Pacific to Enter Into Electrical Filed of Transportation in Competition With Rivals, by Building a New Line From Hamilton to Buffalo.

The Canadian Pacific Railway will immediately commence operations for the construction of an electrical road from Hamilton to Niagara Falls Announcement of this was made at St. Catharines yesterday afternoon, when Mr. E. N. Todd, divisional freight agent at Montreal, appeared before the City Council and submitted to them the proposed plans of the company in regard to the entrance of the new line into that city.

By the construction of the electrical road through the Niagara Peninsula the Canadian Pacific Railway will be in a position to handle traffic direct from Hamilton to Buffalo on their own right-of-way and without being forced to run their traffic over the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo and the Michigan Central railroads. Although nothing definite has been given out regarding the extension of the proposed road to Toronto, Mr. Todd's announcement gives additional color to the rumor in railway circles that the company has made arrangements to construct a road from Toronto to Hamilton. At present, the Canadian Pacific run to Hamilton over the Grand Trunk Railway tracks and are unable to carry passengers or freight to points between the two cities.

To Enter Electrical Field

With the construction of the new road the Canadian Pacific will enter into the electrical field of transportation for the first time in its history. They will also be direct competitors of the Mackenzie & Mann interests, who are now preparing plans for a continuous electrical line from Toronto to Niagara Falls and from Niagara Falls to London. The proposed new Canadian Pacific line will skirt the northern section of St Catharines, running near Carleton St., while a spur line will be run into the heart of the city, where a station will be erected. The company is asking the city to pay half the cost of the construction of a bridge over the Welland Canal, but are willing to allow the Canadian Northern Railway to use it if that company will pay a third of the cost and the city contribute an equal portion. The Council decided to lay the proposition before the Canadian Northern Railway, as there is considerable opposition against the route which that railroad proposes to construct through St. Catharines.

Now Being Laid Out

Superintendent Arundel of the Ontario lines, the chief Canadian Pacific official stationed in Toronto, could not give any particulars regarding the new electrical line. He stated that he was aware that the company had planned to construct the road, but he did not believe that the surveyors had been over the territory as yet. The superintendent could not give any estimate of the cost of such a line and stated that it could not be ascertained until a survey had been completed. He said that the new line was being laid out by J. Leonard, general purchasing agent and that the active work was being done from the head quarters in Montreal.

THE ST. CATHARINES-NIAGARA ELECTRIC LINE

Work on the new electric railway from St. Catharines to Niagara-on-the-Lake is progressing favorably and it is expected that the line will be open for business by October.

The line would have been completed by mid-summer, but for the stringency in the money market. Work was suspended for some time, but it has been resumed again and the management expect to have the cars running before the snow flies.

Seventy-five men and sixty teams are busy every day in the construction gang.

Historical Essay of The Kennedy Clan

By Dr. J. Kennedy of New York.

Dear Clansmen and Kinsmen:—

Plutarch said "It is a desirable thing to be well descended, but the glory belongs to our ancestors." The roots of our genealogical tree, and ancestral lore were developed in Scotland, nourished in Ireland and planted in America. An oft repeated injunction which some of us have heard many times exhorted us to hold up our heads as our family were well-to-do and highly respectable people.

Our first two parents married ladies of English descent and our American history, past and present, is of special interest to us now. Every anniversary of these reunions commencing in 1907, will be an event in the lives of some who have attended them. John Ruskin said that the best picture we could leave our friends would be a history of the times in which we lived. Therefore, it is our duty to make these meetings eventful by records worthy of remembrance.

How much we would like to know our ancestors' history from August 4, 1756, to May 8, 1761, when as prisoner of war and inperils by sea, he encountered so many dangers, even venturing a marriage; and think of another of our men who carried on his shoulders a bag full of wheat from Middleport to Niagara-on-the-Lake. We claim to be among the orders of ability and nobility, the sovereign people whose voice the historian tells us is the nearest approach to the voice of God, similar to those followers of the Nazarene, who heard Him gladly.

We do not claim genius, but we do claim to belong to those who are doing the world's work. We claim patriotism and loyalty to church and state, loyalty to truth and progress. We are useful in our sphere, the big wheel in the machinery. All respects to genius and the captains of industry. It is the aristocracy of ability and the democracy of love we look for, the leaders of pure thought like John Calvin, John Wesley or Mr. Gladstone, whose judgment and consciences are reckoned among the higher faculties of the man.

After your first meeting in 1907, I had a photo of your number placed where many persons saw it, and notable were the many compliments passed on it. One philosopher or scientist said "That beats Burbank's potatoes." A Scotch lady was ecstatic with so much praise that I modestly protested, telling her we pro-

As to the high order of the money needed in quality, but that one fact was certain, there was not a black sheep in the family; "Well," she replied, "you have nothing to be ashamed of." Her negative expression is none other than a complimentary fact.

As to the high order of the money aristocracy, or the titled order of foreign nobility who scour the world for the rich man's money to be spent in the divorce courts, we despise them cordially. As a clan we are a union of strength and what can be a greater comfort than a union of heads, hearts and hands, of cupid's love and a divine love? It's love that makes the world go round.

So much for the present and the prospects for our descendants' happiness. The past, present and future make a trinity of times for a

GOOD PLAYS AT THE AUDITORIUM

CONTRACT LET FOR NEW CANAL

The Dominion Dredging Co. Was Awarded the Contract for the First Section at Three and a Half Million Dollars, Being the Lowest Tender.

Ottawa, July 19.—The contract for the first section of the new Welland Canal was let by the Government yesterday afternoon to the Dominion Dredging Company at three and a half million dollars, the lowest tender. This is for section one of the new canal, beginning at Lake Ontario. It is the intention of the Government to let the contracts for the work section by section.

The new canal is to be finished in five years and will cost approximately $55,000,000. Work on section one will be commenced at once by the successful tenderers.

Keen competition was shown by the dredging firms of Canada in bidding for this contract and the bid of the successful tenderers is under the original estimates. There were ten tenderers in all, which meant two millions of dollars in deposits with the Government.

Departmental engineers are concluding the work of checking up on sections two and three. Section three is to be the big contract of the canal, and much heavier deposits will be required. The whole work will be under contract this year.

The St. Catharines Journal learns on unquestionable authority, that there is nothing in the way of the contractors starting on the work immediately. The Government is already in possession of the land by expropriation and all that is necessary is a valuation of the land. The buyer or valuator has not yet been appointed, but it has been said by one in touch with the proceedings that although the matter of compensation to land owners may not be determined for some time, the contractors are likely to begin construction work just as soon as they can get their equipment on the ground.

The length of the section for which the contract has been let is about three miles and will include the pier work at the Lake Ontario entrance and lock one.

The new lock one will be a revelation. It will be 800 feet long by 80 feet wide in the clear, with 30 feet of water over the sills. The life will be 46½ feet.

'PAID IN FULL' TO-NIGHT

Another Laughing Play "Because She Loved Him So" will Be the Bill for the Balance of This Week

Words of praise are all that can be heard regarding the efforts of the Sarah Gibney Stock Co. at the auditorium this season. Last week Myrtle Ferns pleased and delighted steadily increasing houses and Miss Gibney established beyond all argument her claim to versitility. It is a long call from "Chick" in Myrtle Ferns to "Emma Brooks" in Paid In Full and it is hard to see where Miss Gibney could be improved upon in either role. Paid in Full as presented the first half of the week was a splendid performance, well balanced and convincing and it would be a difficult matter to make individual comment. For the last half of the week another laughing play will be the offering, Because She Loved Him So is the reason for the laughter that will undoubtedly make the roof of the Auditorium ring each night for the balance of the week. It is a comedy of the brightest, cleanest, most rib tickling kind, a ridiculous tangle of domestic mistakes and any one who likes a good hearty laugh—and who does not—can afford to miss it.

A FINE RECORD BY STUDENTS

Names of Successful Students at the Canada Business College

On June 27 the Canada Business College closed one of its most successful years. The principal, Oscar Main, invited the students of the day class to be his guests for the evening. Over 100 accepted the invitation and after the presenting of the diplomas and card cases at the college rooms, the entire party adjourned to the Temple theatre to enjoy the entertainment.

The standard for graduation is the examination set by the Business Educators' Association of Canada. This is the highest standard for business colleges in Canada. Of the candidates who tried this examination during the year, 42 were successful and 13 received honor standing which is 86 per cent of the total mark or over.

The cash prize of $10 in gold given by the college to the student standing highest in each department, was awarded to Miss Frances Allan, 328 John St. north, who stood highest in the shorthand department, with a mark of 630 out of a possible of 700; Miss Emily G. Williamson, Burligton, won the prize in the commercial department with a mark of 608 out of a possible 700.

The Underwood Typewriter company has adopted the plan of awarding diplomas to students from business colleges who are successful in passing their credential tests. The standard for passing is a speed of forty words per minute net. We were successful in having 22 of the diplomas awarded to our students in three months. Miss Georgia Smith Jerseyville, came first with a speed of 53 words; Miss Katie Nicholson, Dundas, was second with a speed of 52 words; Miss Lillian Crozier, Hagersville, was third with a speed of 51 words. These win respectively cash prizes of $5, $3 and $2.

Emily G. Williamson, Burlington, honors; Walter F. Winlaw, Hamilton, honors; Estelia B. Cline, Hamilton; David Cavicchioni, Costa Rica; Lillian Crozier, Hagersville; Grace Wood, Chedoke; Mildred Pickering, Bartonville; Evie Graisley, Grimsby;

BUSINESS AND RECREATION

I bought a horse the other day and having some doubt as to his fitness for my work I called in Dr. Hall for an expert opinion. "Well Doc?" said I "what do you think of him?" "I think" said he "that your horse looks to me like a common slave." Just so, most men are just common slaves to their business. They are good for work but good for nothing else. Some good but mistaken people talk as though work were the only thing worth while. They think it creditable in themselves to belittle those who seek pleasure in recreation, forgetful of the fact that nearly all the fine things of life, the literary, the scientific, the aesthetic have come to us not as a result of work but from some happy combination of circumstances which have placed men in a position to refrain from work. Work is necessary, but drudgery is not and yet the world is full of drudges. The lack-lustre uninteresting, souless slaves to business. The Good Book is replete with warnings given to those who bury themselves in business to the exculsion of those finer things.

The soul of every man is required of him who forgets to enjoy himself. The only soul we know anything about is that part of the man that appreciates and enjoys, that thinks and understands, that sees both work and pleasure in that true perspective which the wisdom of the ages teaches; but when you look for the soul of the business slave you meet only a blank stare and out of this intellectual void there comes a voice Work! Play! Why I have no time to play. I'm too busy. I've got to sell some more real estate today, or some more calico or candy, or crowd a little more work out of my men, and back he goes to business with the hounds of work and worry crowding on his heels and a hunted expression in his eyes until his brains have the consistency of soup—the kind Councillor Mitchell says comes through our water mains at times.

Now Mr. Business slave life is too serious a thing to spend in work only. There is no truth in that teaching which decries pleasure. Every man has divine right by creation to enjoy himself to his fullest capacity. Not self-indulgence of course, nor creating false appetites, nor in any degrading vice, but pleasure derived from a healthy interest in every thing that pertains to life. The man who is master of himself will open up every avenue of enjoyment he posses, and will constantly renew his youth by taking an interest in the things which interest youth. When a man says he cannot get away from his business for recreation he is a self-confessed failure. It is only another way of confessing he hasn't brains enough to earn his living and make his business hum in the time nature has allotted for that purpose.

I overheard a business man say recently that he had no time for any thing but work. It reminded me of the old Scotchman up home, when someone remonstrated with him for working so hard and reading so little, he replied "If a mon knaws enough to worr-rk and to mak' money, that's enough for ony mon ta knaw." That man, for I knew him well, left $100,000 to each of his three sons when he died but he left them nothing else, not a single generous impulse, not even brains enough to take care of it. Such a man is only an eyesore to the community. The sooner he is forgotten the better. About the poorest ravesty on mankind to be found is the piker who has made a pile of money and then sits down on it with a club and tells you how he did it.

No one likes to feel he is getting old and yet one of the surest signs of old age is when a man thinks he cannot get away from his work. A few nights ago I wandered over to the Athletic Club grounds, where a game of soft ball was in progress. It would have done you good to have seen some of those old stagers play ball. What some of them didn't know about baseball would make a text-book for Ban Johnston or John McGraw, but they had a fine line of baseball slang which more than compensated for their lack of knowledge of the fine points of the game. Being short a shortstop, they soon had me out in that position, and believe me, that game arried me back in memory over twenty-five years and made me live over again some of the thrills of youth. Did I go home tired, or sorry I hadn't spent the time taking stock in the store or laying plans for the morrow? No Sir! I would like to play another game and show that pitcher, Mr. Ridley, that I can hit that fast incurve of his.

Facts and Fancies

By Frank Fairborn

Bonnie Burr has been captured in Hamilton and will leave the city right away.

* * * * * *

Dear me!—What will I do without Bonnie Burr?

* * * * * *

She was the joy of my life for the past three weeks and now she's going away and I will never see her again—if it were not for the arrival of a fresh bunch of Polish girls from Buffalo, I would be inconsolable over the departure of sweet little Bonnie Burr-dock.

* * * * * *

A despatch from Toronto says that the Liberal party is keeping up wonderfully under their defeat in North Grey—the writer of the despatch says that the Liberals are very sanguine of ultimate success, that they take their defeat in North Grey almost as a victory—they know they are right and are bound to go ahead.

* * * * * *

That's fine!—When a man is properly licked and has both eyes blackened and his nose broken and he imagines that he has licked the other fellow, then the asylum for him.

* * * * * *

Imagination is a fine thing, but it won't win elections nor keep the pot boiling.

* * * * * *

Hot air schemes and fake policies are all right to keep the party newspapers supplied with good copy but they won't win votes.

* * * * * *

You can fool part of the people all the time, and all the people part of the time, but you can't fool the great bulk of the people all the time.

* * * * * *

"Abolish the bar" is a fine thing to keep the editorial columns of the party papers full, but it takes money to buy land and it takes votes to carry an election and it is getting harder and harder every day to fool farmers with fake assessment reforms and fads about taxing the poor man for the benefit of the rich man.

* * * * * *

Old Sir Jas. P. Whitney is, I know, a bad old man, at least that is the opinion I got of him after reading an editorial in the Toronto Globe but Sir Jas. P. Whitney has made old Ontario hum for the last seven years the way she never hummed before and it will take a lot of imagination and enthusiasm and egotism and sanguinuity and fake systems and phoney reforms to pull the voters away from the same old, overbearing, solid minded Sir Jas. P. Whitney.

The suffragettes in England have invented a new scheme to scare the wits out of the people—they are now sending letters through the mail that explode and blow the whiskers off the men who stamp them.

* * * * * *

The next thing they will be doing will be selling pens and pencils that will explode and blow your nose off when you go to write with them or making boots that will explode and blow your toes off when you go to wear them.

* * * * * *

If they would only invent hats that would explode and blow your head off when you began to wear them and then put one of the hats on each suffragette's head, it would be a darn good thing for the country.

* * * * * *

A newspaper in the United States, explaining the conduct of the suffragettes in England, said that the English were such a slow moving people, and their minds were so dull, that the only way the suffragettes could arouse the people to the fact that they were in the country was by using extreme measures and burning houses, blowing up streets and raising cain generally.

* * * * * *

My opinion is that things are so dull over in England that the people are only using the suffragettes as a source of amusement.

* * * * * *

We all know there is nothing as interesting in this country, or in any other country, as a big fire.

* * * * * *

Most people will run their legs off to get to a fire and so long as the suffragettes in England keep on burning down houses, blowing up buildings and creating excitement in general, they will be popular with the rabble, all of whom will be ready to run when somebody shouts "Fire"

* * * * * *

I never saw people hurry to church like they did last Sunday morning—a thunder storm was threatened.

* * * * * *

Elbert Hubbard, editor of The Philistine, published by the Roycrofters at Aurora, N. Y., has a vein of humor and it takes shapes and forms that are a little different to the humor of most people.

* * * * * *

In a recent trip to Chicago, Elbert went to see several performances of the great conjuror and slight-of-hand man, Raymond.

* * * * * *

Raymond was giving a representation of "Noah's Ark." As far as the audience could see the ark was empty, but at the proper time Raymond reaches in and commences to pull out ducks and pigeons and sheep and goats and bears.

* * * * * *

Now here is where Elbert Hubbard's vein of humor comes in. Elbert thought that Raymond's show was not complete without pigs and here is the story in his own words, as published in The Philistine:

* * * * * *

Raymond helps you turn the dial back. He takes dozens of eggs out of an empty derby hat, transfers a few of these eggs to a basket, then shows you the basket. It is perfectly empty. And now, behold, out of the basket he lifts chickens, guinea-hens, ducks, geese and turkeys—and then a rabbit—just as fast as they are hatched.

Raymond is a profound Bible student. The story of Noah's Ark interests him much.

He has a wonderful Noah's Ark of his own, on wheels. In fact, it is a great, big lifeboat with a deck.

On the stage, in order to get up a storm, you have the co-operation of the orchestra. And so the musicians play storm music, and there not being any water, the stage-hands have to fetch in a few buckets and Raymond pours it into the Ark.

The Ark is perfectly empty; you see that all right. But when the storm comes they have to fasten down the hatches and close the port holes. It is a terrible storm—the orchestra whoops it up, every man for himself. And finally, the whole boat is shipshape, ready to weather the blast.

As the storm subsides, for no storm lasts forever, Raymond opens a porthole, reaches in and pulls out a duck—then chickens, guinea-hens, geese, turkeys. Then come sheep, goats, dogs, cats and wonderful Teddy bears.

It occurred to me that a couple of nice pigs, Roycroft Reds, would add to the joy of the occasion. So I telegraphed home to Ali Baba to send us a pair of pigs.

He picked out the reddest pair of little pigs you ever saw in your life and sent them to Raymond by Parcels Post. They were healthy, good-natured pigs, with no special excess baggage. They arrived in good order and I went to the theater to see their first performance.

Raymond named one pig Fra Elbertus and the other Ella Wheeler Wilcox. Of course, not being used to the stage they were a bit nervous before they went on, especially in view of the fact that this was a critical Chicago audience—of course, 'way up on the subject of pigs.

When Raymond reached into Noah's Ark and yanked one of the pigs out by the ear, it set up a terrible squeal. The magician set it down gently on the stage and reached for its mate. But the little pig on the stage felt lonesome and began to look around for his partner.

Finally both pigs were placed out on the stage and the supers in the wings were given the cue to round up the animals. They caught everything all right except the little pigs. The pigs showed a fine capacity for speed. They eluded the supers and all hands were piped to catch the pigs. But alas and lack! Ella Wheeler Wilcox made one mad dash and went over the footlights on to the bald pate of the leader of the orchestra, caromed off into the big bass-drum, busted it, slid under the seats and wrigleyed among the feet of the audience.

The house was in an uproar. Women stood on the seats. Brave men reached for the pigs, but failed to catch them. The stage-hands came down in the audience and finally the porkers were secured and carried squealingly to their dressing room.

At the next performance, on my advice, Raymond got a poodle-dog harness for each, one of those arrangements that go around over the back and then around the neck, with jingling little bells.

One of the Raymond girls contributed a great big blue bow for Fra Elbertus and Raymond got a green ribbon for Ella Wheeler Wilcox. Then a strap was attached to the ring on the back of each, as a safety precaution.

And now, would you believe it, those pigs are so trained that they will trot along on the street, anywhere, with their attendants. Two of the beautiful Raymond girls are making it their business to take care of these little homeless pigs—sort of chaperonin gthem, as 't were.

I met them the other day on Michigan Avenue, leading their pets like poodles. And, do you know, they attracted so much attention that a crowd gathered and the police had to call a taxi and take the girls and their pets back to the hotel.

When Moses placed his ban on pork, of course he didn't know anything about the intelligence, the beauty and the affection of a sure-enough Roycroft pig. The pigs in the Orient were scavengers; Roycroft Reds are vegetarians and have a college education.

The evolution of humanity is no more wonderful than the evolution of the pig.

Of course, in time, a pig grows up into just a plain fat hog. But there is this advantage, that if hard times come, a pig has a tangible value as collateral, which a poodle doesn't possess.

* * * * * *

The class of Englishmen, Irishmen and Scotchmen arriving in Canada this year is probably much better, as far as the farmers of Canada are concerned, than they were in former years. A great number of those arriving this year have some knowledge of farm work and it does not take them long to ring in and become valuable assistants on the farm. This is especially true of the Scotchmen and the Irishmen.

* * * * * *

The great trouble with some of these men arriving from the old country is that you cannot for awhile get them to feel the responsibility of looking after their work properly. It seems difficult to impress them with the fact that fruit has to be taken off the trees or bushes when it is ripe and if it is not taken off immediately, that it will be a dead loss.

* * * * * *

Some of the better class of Englishmen think that coming to Canada to make a living is only a joke, and some of them treat it for awhile as a sort of an outing, and such a thing as sticking at hard work hour after hour through the hot summer day is something that they never think of.

* * * * * *

I had a funny experience with some Englishmen. They were smart, well dressed, well raised, clever boys but they had never known what it was to work for a living, and were sent out to Canada to earn their living because they were spending money a little too freely at home.

* * * * * *

The first day they worked pretty well and did as they were told. After that the fun started.

* * * * * *

Their restlessness showed itself first in their desire to wander from one part of the farm to another, in order to converse with other people working at another job.

* * * * * *

Then they got into the notion that it was fine to pick where the fruit was large and to skip the parts where it was small and not as plentiful.

* * * * * *

The third day they were sent to a second farm to work and were given a lunch for their dinner, as it was too far to go home for dinner.

* * * * * *

The foreman visited them about 9 o'clock and found them just getting up from having a rest after eating the lunch or dinner—they thought that it was too bad to have the lunch lying in the basket so long, from 7 to 12 o'clock, so they ate it up at 9 o'clock to get it off their minds.

* * * * * *

Each of them picked a basket of fruit and then proceeded to explore the farm.

* * * * * *

They found a horse harnessed, but tied to the fence. The horse belonged to another workman who had driven to the farm and tied his horse up while the owner was engaged in picking fruit.

* * * * * *

The sight of the horse and buggy immediately presented the thought of a ride to the young Englishmen's minds and untying the horse, they took the halter off to put the bridle on. With a jump, the horse left the four Englishmen standing gazing after him in blank amazement, and that was the last they saw of him.

* * * * * *

They knew enough to know that they had done wrong, so instead of informing the owner of the horse, they quietly slipped away and lay down under some trees.

* * * * * *

As soon as the owner discovered the loss of the horse and started to look for the Englishmen, one of them, in his excitement, climbed the tree and he is probably the one who untied the horse.

* * * * * *

The owner of the horse was in a great rage and told the boys that he would send down town and get the chief of police.

* * * * * *

The boy in the tree, when he heard about the police, climbed up a few feet higher, while the others explained that they did not mean any harm and just thought they would go for a drive.

* * * * * *

Having eaten their dinner at nine in the morning, they considered that it would be too strenuous to work any more that day, especially as they would have to wait until 6 o'clock before they would get anything more to eat, so they took a half holiday.

* * * * * *

That night I handed them what was coming to them and they made for the boat, as they claimed that there was more fun in Montreal than on a fruit farm.

* * * * * *

Colonel Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, gave the officers of the regular forces "Hail Columbia" at a banquet given in honor of General Ian Hamilton, in Halifax not long ago.

* * * * * *

Colonel Hughes is opposed to the amount of drinking that is carried on amongst officers and privates in the regular and volunteer forces of Canada.

* * * * * *

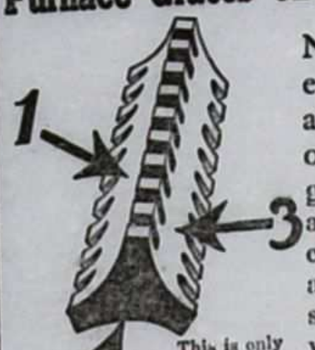
Furnace Grates on the Right Principle



This is only one of the many advantages of the Sunshine Furnace. Pay our agent a visit or write for the Sunshine booklet. It shows you why it pays to install this furnace.

Note the three surfaces, each of which will last as long as the ordinary one surface grate. A gentle rocking is usually all that's required but any clinkers happening to form are ground up by the massive teeth of the four grates with very little effort. The grate bars are so constructed that a volume of air passes freely to all parts of the fire.

Facts and Fancies

Whether this is a good move or not, the Colonel is standing to his guns and is determined that there shall be no canteens in the volunteer camps.

* * * * * *

Simultaneously with his removal of the canteens from the volunteer camps, he started to discourage drinking amongst the officers of the militia and the volunteers.

* * * * * *

It is a well known fact that drinking is very prevalent amongst the officers and the privates also, in the regular forces of the Dominion and the Colonel is to be commended on his endeavor to discourage and discountenance this pernicious habit.

* * * * * *

The Colonel had learned that amongst the officers of the regular militia at Halifax there was a tendency to drink and over-drink and upon the occasion of the banquet lately, he ordered that no liquor be served at the tables.

* * * * * *

Some of the officers had liquor introduced on the quiet at one of the tables and it was not long before the hilarity of the drinkers began to show itself and several speakers had difficulty in making their speeches on account of the jocular interruptions.

* * * * * *

When Colonel Hughes rose to speak it did not take him long to let the drinking officers know where they were at, and his remarks were listened to with rapt attention, and in some cases fear and trembling, for the Colonel was angry and said what he thought in plain language. He said that he would have no more drinking, either on or off duty, and if any of them did not like it, they could lump it and send in their resignations, which would be cheerfully accepted.

* * * * * *

* * * * * *

Idleness is the curse of the military service in times of peace and "Satan finds some mischief for idle hands to do." and officers and men who are not very busy devote too much time to the flowing bowl, with the result that they are unfitted for their duties and to an extent, bring disgrace on the service.

* * * * * *

A glass of beer or a drink of liquor will not hurt either an officer or a soldier, but carrousels lasting all night and into the next day unfits both officers and men for the discharge of their duty and carries them along to a habit which goes from bad to worse, and I hope that Colonel Hughes will make it so hot for the boozers in the militia that they will have to conduct themselves properly or get out.

ST. JOSEPHS CHURCH MID-SUMMER FESTIVAL A GREAT SUCCESS

The mid-summer festival held on the grounds of St. Josephs church, Grimsby, on July 10, 11 and 12, was a great success.

There was a good attendance on the two first nights and on the last night there was a big crowd present.

The festival was a most enjoyable affair from first to last and from a financial standpoint it netted the management a good sum of money clear of all expenses.

The central attraction of the festival was the voting contest for who should cut the beautiful cake. The two candidates were Miss Viola Gowland of Grimsby and Miss Edna Karr of Beamsville. Miss Gowland proved to be the winner. The amount of money raised by the two young ladies was eighty dollars.

The prize drawing and auction sale Saturday night were very successful and netted a considerable amount of money.

The games and refreshment tables were well patronized throughout the festival and each turned in good sums of money.

Phealan's orchestra of St. Catharines, furnished splendid music each evening from 8 o'clock to 11 o'clock for dancing and the dancing platform was well patronized.

The committee who managed the whole affair are to be congratulated on the success of this first mid-summer festival and they are encouraged to put on another one next year.

COMPLETELY CURED OF DYSPEPSIA

By Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets

We are continually hearing from grateful people who have had experiences like that of Miss Alice E. Cooper, of Niagara Falls, Ont., who writes:

"I wish to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I received from your most wonderful Dyspepsia Tablets. Having taken other medicines without having received the slightest relief, I heard of your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and thought I would give them a trial. I have been completely cured of dyspepsia. I will be only too pleased to advise any one troubled with dyspepsia to give them a fair trial."

Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets not only give the immediate relief from heartburn, flatulence, acidity of the stomach and biliousness, which is so much needed, but if taken regularly for a few days or weeks they completely cure the most aggravated cases of stomach trouble. SUDDEN DEATH OF JONATHAN CARPENTER

Grimsby, where they lived many years, moving next to their present home on the McGill farm near the lake shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter were very enthusiastic stock breeders and for many years were noted breeders of standard bred trotting horses and pure bred, registered Jersey cattle.

The Ingledale Stock Farm turned out some of the finest standard bred horses ever produced in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter having been the breeders of Fides Stanton 2:15, Pogis Stanton 2:23¼, Maie C. 2:11¼, Belle Howard 2:22¼, Big Fanny 2:25¼, David Harum 2:14¼ and others.

They were also the breeders of Joe Miller, sire of Joe S. 2:13¼, J. C. T. 2:29¼, etc.

As a breeder of pure bred Jersey cattle, Jonathan Carpenter was known far and wide and was one of the first farmers in Ontario to engage in the breeding of the Jerseys.

In later life, Mr. Carpenter devoted his time to fruit farming, and he with his sons, converted the McGill grain and stock farm into a very fine fruit farm.

The deceased gentleman was a life long Conservative and always took an active part in every election campaign from his boyhood right up to the time of his death. For very many years he took a very active part in municipal politics and after sitting for several years as a councillor for the Township of North Grimsby, he was elected reeve and after serving as reeve for a few years he was elected warden of the County of Lincoln in the year 1886 and filled the chair to the benefit of the county and with honor to himself.

After having served as warden, Mr. Carpenter retired from municipal life and has not engaged in it since, although always taking an active interest in the affairs of the Township.

As a man he was of a genial and friendly disposition and was known over a great part of the Province and wherever he was known he was highly respected by horsemen, cattle breeders, farmers and fruit growers. He repeatedly held offices in agricultural societies and in fruit growers' associations and was among the foremost ranks of farmers and fruit growers.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Victor R. and Gordon R., both at home and by two brothers, W. Hugo of Vinemount and Andrew F. of Thippen, Sask.

The funeral is taking place this afternoon, from his late residence, Ingledale Farm, to St. Andrews church cemetery, Grimsby.

trinity of persons, men, women and children contributing to our ancestral glory and of no less interest are our geographical shrines, viz: Perth, Amboy, N. J., Middleport and Georgetown, Canada. Our men are located in many provinces of the Dominion and in many parts of the United States. All classes of trades, arts and professions are represented. In the professional lines, educators and ministers are largely in the majority. We blow our own bagpipes and sing our own songs, but it is not so much for what we can get out of so day's anniversary as for what we the put into it in view of our descendants and friends.

The modern Saint Andrew Carnegie advises all Scotchmen to be true to the traditions of their native country. We are, therefore, admonished to do so to our adopted and native land. We were born in patriotism and we are admonished to be truly just by a friendly son of St. Patrick who said "Bedad, I would be ashamed to die in any country but Ireland." As the descendants of our ancestors and the ancestors of our descendants, we of the present have a double duty. Looking backwards or forwards we can fix no time for special events like that character invented by Wilkie Collins, poor Mrs. Finch, who dated all events in her life from the birth of her last child.

As for all we stand today we are indful of our fathers and appreciate them more highly as time separates us from them and the works they did in a cold and cruel bygone age. We reverence their chivalry, courage and perserverance.

And further and still more reverently of the mothes of these men we cannot think too kindly, we bring our wreaths of love, reverentially placing them on the tombs to their memory.

The world's greatest High Wire Performer

The hero of Niagara Falls, and the only man who has ever walked a wire over the Whirlpool Rapids. Hardy is the only man of the present day with the well earned reputation of having performed over Niagara Falls. His day performance will be in front of the grand stand. His evening performance from the Park House. Don't make any other engagement, Hardy is only one of the numerous attractions for the day and his act alone is worth coming miles to see.

ISRAEL BECK, JR., Upper Lahave, Lunenburg Co., N. S., Canada.

The darkest days of husband and wife are when they come to look forward to a childless and lonely old age.

Many a wife has found herself incapable of motherhood owing to some derangement of the feminine system, often curable by the proper remedies.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

WESTERN CANADA A BUMPER WHEAT CROP THOUSANDS OF MEN REQUIRED

This Year's Harvest Promises to be the Largest in the History of Canada

According to present indications, the wheat crop of 1913 will be the greatest ever harvested in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, thus requiring the farm laborers of the east to assist in harvesting the world's greatest bread basket.

The governments of the respective provinces state that many thousand men will be required for this year's harvest. These will have to be principally recruited from Ontario, and the prosperity of Canada depends on securing labor promptly. The Canadian Pacific, on which company will fall practically the entire task of transporting the men to the west, is already making special arrangements for this year. Excursions from points in Ontario to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will be run and special trains operated, making the trip in about thirty-six hours and avoiding any change of cars or transfers. This will be a day shorter than any other route. Dates, rates and conrates and conditions will be announced in a few days.

CONWAY'S BAND

A Purely American Organization With a Great Reputation

Patrick Conway's Band, which comes to the Canadian National Exhibition this year has succeeded Gilmore's Band in the hearts of the American people. Many of the leading soloists of the Gilmore organization joined the Conway Band and the conductor has followed Gilmore methods with marked success. With Conway's Band and the Irish Guards Band both giving two concerts daily on the Exhibition grounds a splendid opportunity will be given to compare the best English and American Bands.

ONE BOY WOUNDS ANOTHER WITH A HOE

(St. Catharines Journal)

The Vineland school incident of a few weeks ago, in which one young pupil used a sharp hoe to excellent advantage on a fellow pupil, thereby inflicting a wound on the calf of his leg which required fourteen stitches, has been revived by the matter being brought into court. A ten-year-old lad named Allan, in whose hand is said to have been the sharp instrument at the time of the unfortunate affair, was summoned to appear before Mr. J. M. Brennan, J. P., on Friday, the information being laid by Mr. McIntosh, father of 9-year-old Douglas McIntosh, who was injured. Crown Attorney Brennan went up to Vineland on Friday to conduct the case, but on arrival found that young Allen had been taken by his parents to Hamilton, the summons having been disregarded. A bench warrant was issued and as the Hamilton address of the Allan family is known, an officer was sent to the ambitious city to bring the juvenile defendant back. The hearing of the case will take place this afternoon if the lad is brought back in time.

The child who was injured has practically recovered. The rural mail carrier who happened along at the time the boys had the argument over the hoe, and McIntosh was injured, bound the leg above the calf where an artery had been severed. Had he not done so, Dr. Addy said, the boy must surely have bled to death in 20 minutes. Fourteen stitches were required to close the gaping wound.

McIntosh offered not to take proceedings if Allan's family would pay the doctor's expenses. The Allens showed little anxiety to liquidate the debt so the complaint was lodged.

IRISH GUARDS BAND

Most Popular of all the British Bands that have visited Canada

The band of the Irish Guards, who feature the music at the Canadian National Exhibition this year, need no introduction to Canadian music lovers. They were brought over to the Canadian National Exhibition in 1905 and so enthusiastically were they received that it was decided to tour them from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The tour was carried out and its success marked the Irish Guards as the most popular of the splendid British Military Bands that have visited Canada.

Visitors to the Exhibition that year will still remember the selection from Il Trovatore and the cornet solo that came floating in from a distant part of the grounds. The same soloist, Sergeant Hunt, is still with the band. Then you'll remember "Baby Sweetheart." The whole country was whistling and humming it.

The Easy Laxative

In justice to yourself you should try Rexall Orderlies,—your money back if you don't like them. They are a candy confection that really do give easy relief from constipation.

Good health is largely dependent upon the bowels. When they become sluggish the waste material that is thrown off by the system accumulates. This condition generates poisons which circulate throughout the body, tending to create coated tongue, bad breath, headache, dull brain action, nervousness, biliousness and other annoyances.

Avoid harsh catharties and physics. They give but temporary relief. They often aggravate the real trouble. They are particularly bad for children, delicate or aged persons.

Rexall Orderlies

Come in tablet form, taste just like candy and are noted for their easy, soothing action upon the bowels. They don't purge, gripe, cause nausea, looseness, nor the inconveniences attendant upon the use of purgatives. Their action is so pleasant that the taking of Rexall Orderlies almost becomes a desire instead of a duty.

Children like Rexall Orderlies. They are ideal for aged or delicate persons as well as for the most robust. They act toward relieving constipation, and also to overcome its cause and to make unnecessary the frequent use of laxatives. They serve to tone and strengthen the nerves and muscles of the bowels and associate organs or glands.

Make Us Prove It

We guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Rexall Orderlies if they do not give entire satisfaction. We ask no promises and we in no way obligate you. Your mere word is sufficient for us to promptly and cheerfully refund the money.

Doesn't that prove that Rexall Orderlies must be right? You must know we would not dare make such a promise unless we were positively certain that Rexall Orderlies will do all we claim for them. There is no money risk attached to a trial of Rexall Orderlies, and in justice to yourself, you should not hesitate to test them.

CAUTION: Please bear in mind that Rexall Orderlies are not sold by all druggists. You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at the Rexall Stores. You can buy Rexall Orderlies in this community only at our store:

OFFICIAL REPORT ON CROP CONDITIONS IN THE NIAGARA DISTRICT

Toronto, July 17,'13

Editor Independent,
Grimsby, Ontario.

Dear Sir:—The Niagara Peninsula Fruit Growers' Association has issued the following report on fruit crop conditions which may be taken as correct:

The second monthly return cards mailed to members of the N. P. F. G. A. have been received. It is gratifying to notice a good increase in the number of replies, evidence that the first crop report was appreciated by the growers. Following is a summary of the information gained:

The drop in the tree fruit is commencing, but it is not heavy enough to cut in to the crop. It is much worse in outside districts in apples. Pear blight does not seem to be worse than last year, but it is too early to show in any quantity yet. Apple aphis is reported at Homer and apple scab reported bad at Beamsville. A few reports are in of damage done by rose chafer on grapes and of mildew on gooseberries which were not sprayed. Early tomatoes are in excellent shape with promise of a large crop. Canners' tomatoes are not as well advanced as they should be, but are growing rapidly now. No further damage has been done by the frost in June. Spraying is practically over. Cultivation is well attended to and orchards generally are in fine condition except where there is marked shortage of labor, as reported from Grimsby.

Early yellow peaches, including Crawford and St. John, are reported light, while early white flesh are good. The late peaches seem to promise uniformly good crop, the young trees apparently bearing heavier than the old. Baldwins and Spys, as mentioned last month, are light, Greenings and Kings are good to full.

	Reports	Per cent
Red Currants	42	73
Gooseberries	31	70
Raspberries	55	84
Cherries	87	76
Japan plums	66	70
European plums	75	66
Early peaches	88	72
Late peaches	97	76
Pears	82	75
Grapes	79	75
Apples	69	45
Tomatoes	74	86

There is the promise of a fine crop of nearly everything and there will be plenty of fruit for the consuming public if there could be proper distribution. The consumers should send in their order early and have them booked, so that when fruit is at its best these orders could be filled. The growers are prepared to accept such orders and fill them at reasonable rates. The season for each variety is so short that often the fruit is ripe and picked before the consumer realizes this and places an order. The quality of all fruit promises to be above the average.

The next report will be sent out about August 1.

Yours very truly,
P. W. Hodgetts,
Director.

A particularly obliging cherry grows in the County of Kent, England. It is a black cherry and at the right season you can draw it clean away from stone and stalk, leaving these upon the tree. Some housewives gather the fruit straight into bottles in this way—stoneless cherries that make the winter dinner table rejoice.

SUPPORT HOME INDUSTRY

The July Clearance Sale at A F Hawke's is proving one of the most successful sales he has had for a long time. An attempt was made to try to induce the public to stay in Grimsby by proving to them that dry goods, etc., can be bought as cheaply here as in Hamilton and it has turned out just as we said it would. If you advertise so that the public know what's on, the result is put in to be a success. From our certain to be the goods sold at own experience are as cheap and as Hawke's store any satisfaction and stylish, give every satisfaction value are in most cases a betteto. than in Hamilton or Toronto

"LITTLE PEACH" AND "YELLOWS"

INVESTIGATION WORK OF DR. MCLAUGHLIN

By L. Caesar, Provincial Entomologist, Guelph.

(Free Lance) Farmer

From The Fruit Grower and year

In taking up the work this year (1912) I have not attempted to find out the cause. This would require years of careful laboratory work with the prospect of failure at the end.

Dr. Buggar is working on contagious diseases and is feeling more confident than ever before of finding out the cause. Mr. McCubbin is assisting in the investigation of this disease.

For peach growers to do their duty in this matter, each must destroy his own trees to go out and destroy his own. The Grimsby men have done their duty in this respect, but the men in the St. Catharines district and also in other parts of the Niagara District have not.

Over 2,000 trees were marked last year. From Jordan Harbor to Winona, every tree is going out as it should, but it is not so in the other districts.

Inspectors must be more strict and should be backed up by the growers. We need more inspectors in certain districts for one man is often trying to cover too much ground.

No microscope shows any organism to be present in the diseased trees and none grow in culture media.

The work I have done has been to ascertain in what way or ways these diseases spread and at what time of year it takes place also how long a tree may be inoculated before these diseases show in the foliage.

Five methods are being tested for spreading these diseases, namely: Pits, buds, bees or other insects, rubbing or injuring of the bark, pruning tools.

Pits from diseased trees have been planted and the trees are growing; healthy stocks have been budded with buds from diseased trees; blossoms have been pollenized with pollen from diseased trees healthy trees have been inoculated by rubbing with diseased wood and pruning tools have been used on diseased trees and then upon healthy wood.

These experiments are being carried on at different seasons, so that they will prove at what season the disease spreads and how long a period elapses before it is apparent on the leaf.

No results have been noticeable yet, but next season will likely bring out some indications of the progress of these diseases.

Mottled leaf is not a sign of Little Peach or Yellows unless other symptoms are present. We are not sure what Mottled Leaf is. Many cases are caused by an excess of moisture in the Fall. It is bad on peaches and Japan plums.

Two thousand three hundred trees were destroyed in the St. Catharines district. We are trying to make the growers in that district wake up to the necessity of good vigorous measures. The same applies to Niagara-on-the-Lake and to Fonthill.

Fonthill was very badly hit by these diseases. The inspectors there were taken away to pack peaches. Mr. Arnold is not a Yellows or Little Peach inspetor.

Mr. Nelson's district is small and he only found 80 diseased trees

The very wet season made it hard and very slow for the inspectors to go through the orchards.

I must emphasize one thing and that is that we must have two inspections in every district each season. One inspection in August will only get half the diseased trees. The second inspection must be late in September up to the first week in October. The symptoms will develop after the fruit ripens.

BRAND NEW MIDWAY

And the Spieler Sings a New Song Down the Pike

A Brand New Midway with brand new shows is what the Canadian National offers this year to those who like to wander down the "Pike." The removal of the cattle barns has necessitated the new midway, while the engagement of the Con. T Kennedy shows guarantees everything entirely new in this line of amusement.

The Kennedy Shows are a whole circus in themselves. They carry a band of fifty pieces, a wild animal show, with representatives of all the denizens of the forest and jungle, a Wild West Show, illusions, curiosities, etc., etc. It will be a clean midway. Those montrosities that disgust have been eliminated; but there is everything to amuse and the sweet voice of the spieler to tell you all about it. It will be a monster Midway and if you are out for fun it is there for the finding.

THE HALLUCINATIONS OF THE CIGARETTE FOOL

(By Elbert Hubbard)

Cigarette smoking begins with an innocent boyish effort to be smart. It soon becomes a pleasure, then a satisfaction, next a necessity.

The last stage evolves into a third, a condition of fever and unrest, wandering of mind, accompanied by a loss of moral and mental control. This may take two years or ten. But finally a flabbiness of tissue results from taking the smoke into the bronchial tubes, where pure air is required to oxygenize the blood and a nervous weakness follows that leaves the victim unprotected, a prey to any sort of malady or disorder to which he may be exposed or liable.

Beginning as a habit, the indulgence finally becomes a vice.

The first indication of degeneration is in the youth's secretiveness. He feels his weakness and so seeks to present a bold front. "Bluff" is his chief characteristic. He tries to make an impression—he talks big, is full of promises, plans and confidential utterances. He confuses dates, times, and places and often will tell you he has done a thing when he only intends to doit.

Only the strong man is honest; only the healthy tell the truth.

A lie is a disease of the will; hypocrisy is a symptom.

The cigarettist is apt to dream over his work, to dawdle indefinitely. He picks things up and lays them down and proves for us again and again the maxim that the strong man is the one who can complete a task, not merely begin it.

One marked peculiarity of the cigarette fiend is that often he makes the discovery that cleverness, astuteness, trickery and untruth are good substitutes for simplicity, frankness and plain, common honesty.

The cigarettist has an abnormal egotism—he has much faith in himself. If this faith wavers, he rolls a cigarette. Often in advanced stages half the day is given to rolling cigarettes. To roll cigarettes gives the defective something to do. Nervous, clutching, scratching, yellow-stained hands—hands that alternately play the devil's tattoo and roll cigarettes—these are the hands that forge your name and close over other people's money.

The victim has a fixed belief that he is immune and that all men are mortal but himself.

He grins at warnings, laughs at the advice of his best friends and turns your brotherly appeal into a joke.

The man who would quit the cigarette habit must see his own folly and convince his own mind of the existence of the vice ere it can be eradicated. The trouble is in his brain. There is no salvation for him outside himself. There is no doubt but that the cigarettist is often a man of many good impulses, and over and over in his heart there sweep resolves to cease all subterfuge and be true, but these maudlin resolves are not to be trusted any more than you hearken to the promises of a "dope fiend."

The choice between cigarettes and daily doses of cocaine, morphine, or bromide is very slight.

Cigarette smoking is not periodic—it is continuous—a slow, insidious, sure poison.

Its results can be foretold as accurately as the expert alienist can foresee the end of incipient locomoter ataxia. Fortunately, most young men who begin the habit quit it before it gets a vital hold upon them. Were this not so, how could the student body, say at Harvard, Yale or Dartmouth, survive? These young men smoke cigarettes just as they dabble in strange sins when away from the immediate restraint of family and home. Later, many of them straighten away and become pillars of society. But for the young man who has become so calloused that he smokes cigarettes in the presence of his mother, sister or sweetheart, there is little hope.

The poison has already tainted his moral nature and for him the work of dissolution, disintegration and degeneration has begun. He is defective—a physical, mental and moral defective.

Cigarettes stupefy the conscience, deaden the brain, place the affections in abeyance and bring the beast to the surface.

It is a busy world, boys, and competition is keen. We need all the strength we can muster. No one thinks more of us because we use cigarettes—and there are those who think less. And these last are the people whose good-will we prize. Let's cut them out!

In France rough, cold, windy weather in early spring in Cotes-du-Nord hurt the plum, peach and apricot crops so much that they are a failure. Gooseberries and strawberries promise very well. A good crop of apples is expected with favorable weather.

ST. JOSEPHS CHURCH MID-SUMMER FESTIVAL, A GREAT SUCCESS

The mid-summer festival held on the grounds of St. Josephs church, Grimsby, on July 10, 11 and 12, was a great success.

There was a good attendance on the two first nights and on the last night there was a big crowd present.

The festival was a most enjoyable affair from first to last and from a financial standpoint it netted the management a good sum of money clear of all expenses.

The central attraction of the festival was the voting contest for who should cut the beautiful cake. The two candidates were Miss Viola Gowland of Grimsby and Miss Edna Karr of Beamsville. Miss Gowland proved to be the winner. The amount of money raised by the two young ladies was eighty dollars.

The prize drawing and auction sale Saturday night were very successful and netted a considerable amount of money.

The games and refreshment tables were well patronized throughout the festival and each turned in good sums of money.

Phealan's orchestra of St. Catharines, furnished splendid music each evening from 8 o'clock to 11 o'clock for dancing and the dancing platform was well patronized.

The committee who managed the whole affair are to be congratulated on the success of this first mid-summer festival and they are encouraged to put on another one next year.
